

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff

v.

CRIMINAL 07-0121 (ADC)

[6] JOHN LEBRÓN-DUPREY,

Defendant

MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
RE: RULE 11(c)(1)(A) & (B) PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

I. Personal Background

On March 19, 2007, John Lebrón-Duprey, the defendant herein, was charged in a two-count indictment. He agrees to plead guilty to count one.

Count one charges defendant of knowingly and intentionally, combine, conspire, and agree with each other and with diverse other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit an offense against the United States, to wit, to knowingly and intentionally possess with intent to distribute, multi-kilogram quantities of controlled substances, that is, in excess of one kilogram of heroin, a Schedule I, Narcotic Controlled Substance; in excess of five kilograms of cocaine, a Schedule II, Controlled Substance; in excess of 50 grams of cocaine base, a Schedule II, Controlled Substance; and in excess of 100 kilograms of marihuana, a Schedule I, Controlled Substance, as prohibited by 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and 860. All in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846.

II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

On March 13, 2008, while assisted by Ernesto Reyes Blassino, Esq., the defendant, by consent, appeared before me in order to change his previous not guilty plea to a plea of guilty as to count one of the indictment.

In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing being held. The defendant responded that the purpose of the hearing was to plead guilty. The defendant was advised of his right to have all proceedings, including the change of plea hearing, before a United States district judge. Defendant was given notice of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries were to be conducted under oath and that it was expected that his answers would be truthful (he was also explained that the consequences of lying under oath could lead to a perjury charge); and (c) his right to have the change of plea proceedings presided over by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was also explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two. The defendant consent to proceed before this magistrate judge.

III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

A. Compliance With Requirements Rule 11(c)(1)

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and he understood that if convicted on count one, he may be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 10 years or no more than life, a fine not to exceed of $4, 000,000, and a term of supervised release of at least five years. In accordance

3 with 21 U.S.C. § 860, the maximum penalties would be twice that of section 841, and
4 at least twice the term of supervised release authorized by section 841.

5 At the time of the signing of this plea agreement, the defendant shall pay a
6 special monetary assessment of $100, per count, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013(a).

7 The defendant is aware that the court may order him to pay a fine sufficient
8 to reimburse the government for the costs of any imprisonment, probation or 9 supervised release, and may impose restitution. As part of this plea agreement, the 10 defendant agrees to produce complete information regarding all restitution victims
11 and defendant agrees to provide a financial statement as requested to the United 12 States.

13 Defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the 14 court to decide in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term
15 and fine were to be imposed upon him, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea
16 if he was unhappy with the sentence of the court. The defendant understood this.

17 Defendant was explained what the supervised release term means. It was 18 emphasized that cooperation with the United States Probation officer would assist 19 the court in reaching a fair sentence.

20 Emphasis was made on the fact that at this stage, no prediction or promises
21 as to the sentence to be imposed could be made by anyone. Defendant responded to 22 questions in that no promises, threats, inducements or predictions as to what
23 sentence will be imposed have been made to him.

24 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

25 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant
26 was advised of his right:

27
28

CRIMINAL 07-0121 (ADC)

1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the government who has the burden of proving his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no comment could be made by the prosecution in relation to his decision not to testify.

3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would be entitled to see and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on his behalf, and challenge the government's evidence.

4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which would have to be convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means of competent evidence.

5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his speaking with his attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully understood his rights, it is determined that defendant is aware of his constitutional rights.

C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised of the consequences of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon having his guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be giving up the above rights and would be convicted solely on his statement that he is guilty.

Furthermore, the defendant was admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty he would not be allowed later on to withdraw his plea because he eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed, and that when he were under supervised

3 release, and upon violating the conditions of such release, that privilege could be
4 revoked and he could be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment. He
5 was also explained that parole has been abolished.

6 The defendant has been advised by his attorney of the provisions of the Safety
7 Valve, however he has declined to receive this benefit.

8 D. Plea Agreement

9 The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed
10 by the government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the 11 record. Defendant was clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

12 1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court.

13 2. The plea agreement is an "agreement" between the defendant, defense
14 attorney and the attorney for the government which is presented as a
15 recommendation to the court in regards to the applicable sentencing adjustments
16 and guidelines, which are advisory.

17 3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated
18 sentencing guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the 19 sentencing court.

20 4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation
21 contained therein, the sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea
22 agreement and impose any sentence up to the possible maximum penalty prescribed
23 by statute.

24 5. The defendant understands that if the court accepts this agreement and 25 sentences defendant according to its terms and conditions, defendant waives and 26 surrenders his right to appeal the conviction and sentence in this case.

27 Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

3 E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

4 The government presented a proffer of its evidence with which the defendant
5 basically concurred.

6 Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact and evidence to 7 establish all elements of the offense charged.

8 F. Voluntariness

9 The defendant accepted that no leniency had been promised, no threats had 10 been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he did not feel pressured to plead
11 guilty. He came to the hearing for the purpose of pleading guilty and listened 12 attentively as the prosecutor outlined the facts which it would prove if the case had 13 proceeded to trial.

14 IV. Conclusion

15 The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11,
16 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to count one
17 of the indictment.

18 After cautioning and examining the defendant under oath and in open court,
19 concerning each of the subject matters mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the 20 preceding sections, I find that the defendant John Lebrón-Duprey is competent to 21 enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the 22 maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charge is 23 supported by the government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the 24 offense charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full 25 knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.

26 Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant
27 and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to count one of the indictment.
